FEB 1952 51-4AA

50X1-HUM

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

CLASSIFICATION	SECRET/CONTROL -	U.S.	OFFICIALS	ONLY
-	SECURITY INFORMATION

UBJECT Military Activities in Neuruppin ATE OF NFO. LACE COURED ATE OF NFO. LACE COURS SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS SCHOOLS WITH THE REMAINS THE ATTENDANC SETERAL SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1 1. Barracks in Februbelline stress in Neuruppin Set in the yeard of the Without muzzle brake. 2. Trucks in the yeard of the yeard of the yeard of the yeard of the wide shield. The guns had four single broken-through rubber wheels and a wide shield. The barrel was about three m. long and had a caliber of 3-4 cm. At the muzzle there was a flame hider. 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Berracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were ready day and night the trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks wi	DISTR. 27 May 1952 F PAGES 2 F ENCLS. BELOW) 50X1-HUM LEMENT TO RT NO. D INFORMATION 50X1-HUM and SP guns a rive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around bber wheels and a 50X1-HU a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-HU activ in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU activ in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU activ in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU	SECURITY INFORMATION
DUNTRY Germeny (Russian Zone) DATE DISTR. 27 May 19 NO. OF PAGES 2 NO. OF ENCLS. GIFTO SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. ACE COUIRED THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Barracks in February and three should be read to the general wheels. The guns were about 2.5 m. long and had a caliber of 7.5 cm. All were without muzzle brake. 2. Trucks in the yard. The guns had four single broken-through rubber wheels and a wide shield. The barrel was about three m. long and had a caliber of 3.4 cm. At the muzzle there was a flame hider. 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Februbalingerstrasse, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were seen. 5. Praffic. On 18 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one isom. one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and bow long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through barreled stacked guns (similar to Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) barreled stached guns. Truck were 50	F PAGES 2 F ENCLS. BELOW) 50X1-HUM LEMENT TO RT NO. D INFORMATION 50X1-HUM and SP guns a rive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around bber wheels and a a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-HU activ in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU two self- 50X1-HU activ in a westerly	INFORMATION REPO	RT REPORT
BJECT Military Activities in Neuruppin NO. OF PAGES 2 NO. OF ENCLS. UNITED SELOW SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Barracks in February in Information of This Form 12 Formation. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1 THIS IS UNEVALUAT	F PAGES 2 F ENCLS. BELOW) 50X1-HUM LEMENT TO RT NO. D INFORMATION 50X1-HUM and SP guns a Tive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around bber wheels and a 50X1-HU a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-HU two self- 50X1-HU are city in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU two self- 50X1-HU The city in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU The city in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU The city in a westerly		CD NO.
NO. OF PAGES 2 NO. OF ENCLS.	TENCLS. BELOW) 50X1-HUM LEMENT TO RT NO. D INFORMATION 50X1-HUM and SP guns a rive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around beer wheels and a 50X1-HU a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-HU two self- 50X1-HU a city in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU	DV Garmanut (Burgalan 7000)	DATE DISTR. 27 May 1952
THE OF FO. ACE OUIRED NO. OF ENCLS. USFED SELOW SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Bearracks in Fehrbellinerstrasse: Tanks Wheels. The guns were about 2.5 m. long and had a caliber of 7.5 cm. All were without muzzle brake. 2. Trucks in the yard. The guns had four single broken-through rubber wheels and a wide shield. The barrel was about three m. long and had a caliber of 3-4 cm. At the muzzle there was a flame hider. 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Barracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck 5. Traffic: On 16 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one—teen—one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) Dearreled attached guns. Truck Were 50	SOX1-HUM LEMENT TO RT NO. D INFORMATION and SP guns a rive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around beer wheels and a 50X1-HU a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-HU two self- 50X1-HU a city in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU secity in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU secity in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU secity in a westerly		NO OF PAGES
ACE QUIRED SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMAT	D INFORMATION and SP guns arrive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around bber wheels and a scaliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-Hillingerstrasse, to be the company of the crews 50X1-Hillingerstrasse,	Military Activities in Neuruppin	NO. OF FAGES
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 1. Barracks in Februbellinerstrasse: Tanks 1. Were observed in the yard. The tanks all mad rive large blade wheels. The guns were about 2.5 m. long and had a caliber of 7.5 cm. All were without muzzle brake. 2. Trucks 2. Trucks 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Barracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck 5. Traffic to 18 February at 130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one isem. one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the German heavy infantry guns) barracled attached guns. Truck Were 50	D INFORMATION and SP guns a rive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around bber wheels and a a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-Hi ecity in a westerly two self- 50X1-Hi and SP guns 50X1-Hi 50X1-Hi 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 1	F	(LISTED BELOW)
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION 50X1 THIS IS UNEVALUATE	and SP guns a rive large blade er of 7.5 cm. All ed guns drove around bber wheels and a a caliber of 3-4 Illingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-Hi te city in a westerly two self- 50X1-Hi	RED were observed in the yard. The tanks all had rive large blade wheels. The guns were about 2.5 m. long and had a caliber of 7.5 cm. All were without muzzle brake. 2. Trucks in the yard. The guns had four single broken-through rubber wheels and a wide shield. The barrel was about three m. long and had a caliber of 3-4 cm. At the muzzle there was a flame hider. 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Barracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were seen. 5. Traffic: On 18 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one isen, one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) barreled attached guns. Truck were 50	ed guns drove around ber wheels and a 50X1-HU allingerstrasse, field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-H two self- 50X1-H	OF THE U.S. CODE, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OF REVERNING TO THE U.S. CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	50X1-HL wheels. The guns were about 2.5 m. long and had a caliber of 7.5 cm. All were without muzzle brake. 2. Trucks in the yard. The guns had four single broken-through rubber wheels and a wide shield. The barrel was about three m. long and had a caliber of 3-4 cm. At the muzzle there was a flame hider. 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Barracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were seen. 5. Traffic: On 18 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one teem one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) as well as cateroillar vehicles with long-barreled attached guns. Truck	ed guns drove around bber wheels and a 50X1-HU a caliber of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-HU activ in a westerly two self- 50X1-HU	1. Barracks in Fehrbellinerstrasse: Tanks	and SP guns in the yard. The gums had four single broken-through rubber wheels and a wide shield. The barrel was about three m. long and had a caliber of 3-4 cm. At the muzzle there was a flame hider. 3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Barracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were seen. 5. Traffic: On 18 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one isen, one radio car two self-50 propelled gums, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached gums (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) harreled attached gums. Truck	start of 3-4 llingerstrasse, field. The exact se because of the ghters. The crews secretary two self- 50X1-H	wheels. The guns were about 2.5 m. long and h	id a caliber of 7.5 cm. All
3. If one can judge by the lights, all the barracks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, See-Barracks, and Friedericus) are occupied.* 4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were seen. 5. Traffic: On 18 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one isen, one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) barreled attached guns. Truck were 50	field. The exact s because of the ghters. The crews 50X1-Hi ne city in a westerly two self- 50X1-Hi	in the yard. The guns had four single broken- wide shield. The barrel was about three m. lo	through rubber wheels and a DOAT-F
4. Airfield: Several jet fighters were observed on the airfield. The exact number is not known since it was hard to see the fighters because of the high fence. It is assumed that there are about 10-20 fighters. The crews were ready day and night. Truck were seen. 5. Traffic: On 18 February at 1130 hours, a unit passed the city in a westerly direction. It consisted of one isen, one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) barreled attached guns. Truck	ghters. The crews 50X1-H accity in a westerly two self- 50X1-l	2 If one can hidge by the lights, all the barrac	ks (Fehrbellingerstrasse, direction. It consisted of one teem one radio car propelled guns, and three tanks and how long it stayed could not be determined. 6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about 35 vehicles drove through the city. They came from the direction of Rechlin and drove toward Altruppin. Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar to the German heavy infantry guns) as well as cateroillar vehicles with long. barreled attached guns. Truck	000 0022 000 1-1	number is not known since it was hard to see thigh fence. It is assumed that there are about were ready day and night. Truck	t 10-20 fighters. The crews the city. They came from the direction of Rechilf and those toward in the Among the vehicles there were trucks with men and attached guns (similar the German heavy infantry guns) as well as cateroillar vehicles with long-barreled attached guns. Truck	*	direction. It consisted of one teen one rad	. Where it came from ned guns (similar to	6. On 21 February at 0045 hours, a column of about the city. They came from the direction of Remander the vehicles there were trucks with men the German heavy infantry guns) barreled attached guns. Truck	t 35 vehicles drove through thin and drove toward Altruppin. and attached guns (similar to termillar vehicles with long-
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY		CLASSIFICATION TO CONTROL TO CONTROL

			50X1-HUM
SEC	RET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICE	ALS ONLY
	-2-
		•
			50X1-HUI
Bent Distinion Which	barracks are occupied by h here is confirmed by the The E 1-07 series below	he observed tank unit	ts; it is
Comment: The	field is occupied by af	ighter regiment equip	oped with
MIG-15.			50X1-HUM
Comment: Jud 8th Mechanized Div	ging by the tank sion of the 3rd Shock Ar	his concerns a uni	of the

SECRET/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY